Hi Renae:

Just a follow up.

I have letter that was sent to Chris dated Oct 13th, 2006. It advises that we need the original transcripts from the first matter when summary Judgment was granted.

It was my understanding Chris called CJ Divens office confirming that you have ordered this transcript.

He was also to advise who it was ordered with so we could also possibly follow up if we do not get shortly. This transcript is very important for us to review as soon as possible.

It is also my understanding that Chris and CJ will talk every week in order to get this back on track.

If I have misunderstood anything please advise me as I am quite anxious to get this matter resolved as it is approaching 5 years that a trustee is holding close to $1 Million $'s or more. We also have a party occupying this facility with no deed and who didn't fulfill the terms of the contract.. We also have another attorney who surrendered a $50,000 deposit without advising us in the proper time frame.

Thanking you in advance

Sorry to hear Chris has to be attending funerals.

Hopefully we will hear from him the beginning of next week as this information is critical.
CJ Diven is of the understanding it has been ordered from his last conversation with Chris and hopefully that is the case.

Thanks for keeping us posted.

We have ordered the SJ transcript. I will try to catch CJ late this afternoon. I am on my way today to Federal Court and have no idea when it will end.

----- Original message from CHRISTMASDECO@aol.com: -----

Hi Renae:

I have received no answer concerning the transcript referenced in CJ's Oct 13th letter. Hopefully it has been ordered from the court and on the way to us? In retrospect we should have has a copy of this transcript after the hearing. I can't seem to get this question answered??

CJ was supposed to talk to Chris at 3:00PM yesterday? CJ received no phone call he is aware of and I checked with his office staff. He left several messages yesterday and as of this email has not heard from Chris.

I have been involved with Chris in this litigation since Dec 2002?

I would like an etymology from Chris as to how he see's this case has progressed and where it is going. I am the client and have no idea what is happening. It would be helpful if he could put something in writing.

Also why we can't meet at a time of his choosing at our expense is still baffling to me.

From reading the last transcript it seems I will be receiving a bill for opposing attny Mr. Morrisons time and the court has inferred of a scurrilous relationship between Chris and ourselves and also the court which can't be further from the truth.

I have invested $20,000 in an AAA arbitration proceeding and was simply trying to perfect our judgment etc.

It has now been turned around in the court's eyes and we are city slickers taking advantage of poor Mr Thompson!!!!!! This is 4 years later and over a Million $'s is sitting in some escrow account for the sale of the property which he has been in possession of. Also let's not forget the fact that the previous attorney Mr McGrath released the escrow funds without advising us in a timely manner. He has confirmed that in writing.

I doubt you can understand our frustration although you might sense it.

Hi Bruce-

The SJ report means Summary of Judgement. Also, Chagaris said that he spoke with the court reporter regarding KA v Hawthorne Mills. The transcript would easily cost between $1500-$2000. He said it could be done, but he wasn't sure if you wanted to do it.

normal transcripts run 500 to 750. we got a discount on the last one as she had already done it and had it on disk. The costs are based on time and work. The SJ hearing lasted several hours and included a box load of documents. She will have to go to the Court house, review the video of the hearing, transcribe the video and then pull all documents introduced into evidence and then reconcile the video with the documents. Also, I have not received payment on my invoice. When can I expect payment?

Lucille sent it. She said that's the caption that Chagaris gave her but I think he's just wrong. It's pretty safe to disregard it.

She also sent a fax to Chagaris on Friday telling him to order the transcripts.

Chris:

What is the telephone #.

Is Adkins just a court reporting service?? Are there other services available to use and would like a firm $ amount to get this accomplished

How do you reference this case- is their a case # and what judge was this before?

I suppose CJ will be in tomorrow and will review invoice with you as you are hardly in contact with me and I would like to know where we are going with this case as I am totally confused ??
Sorry I am not an attorney and need some help.

I am told by CJ if he can review the findings of the very first arbitration we can figure something out. I have been asking for this for weeks.
